School spirit plays an important role during a P.C.H.S. year. One man has done his best to arouse and build that spirit. He works hard and receives hard work from his pupils.

For the past two years, he has led the Peach County High School Marching Band to many great awards and much deserved recognition. The band's performances have proved it to be one of the finest bands in the state.

It is with a great deal of pride and respect that the Annual Staff dedicates the 1977 RETROSPECT to a man who is dedicated . . .

A work of Jenius!!

Juniors begin work on a first place

The Junior Victory Float

Sophomores work on cumbersome commode

Sophomores flushed to defeat

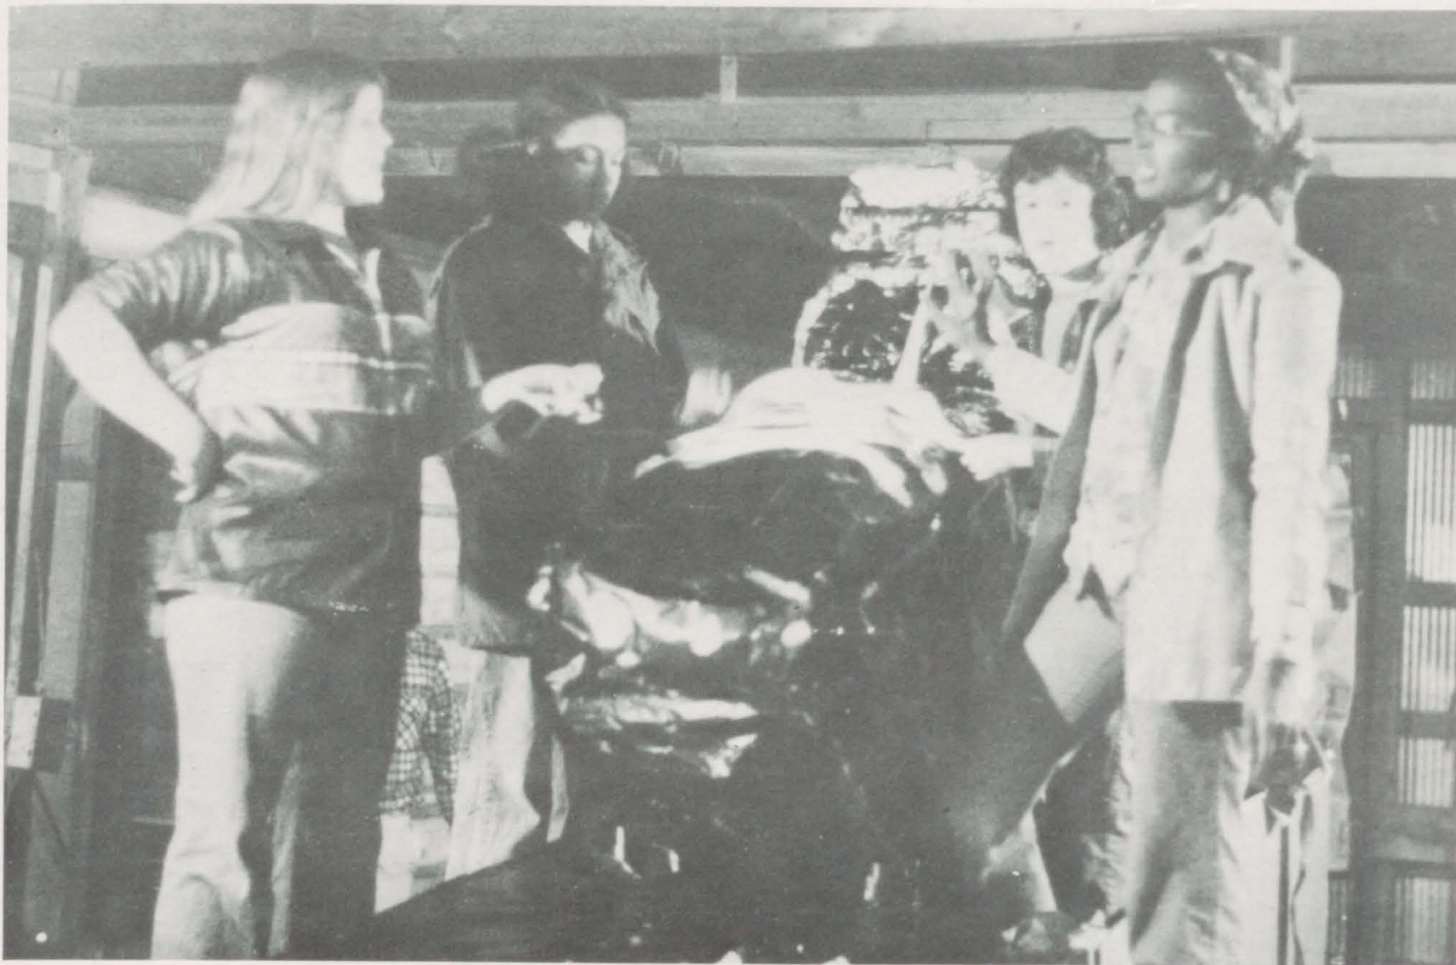

Freshmen work on the boat float

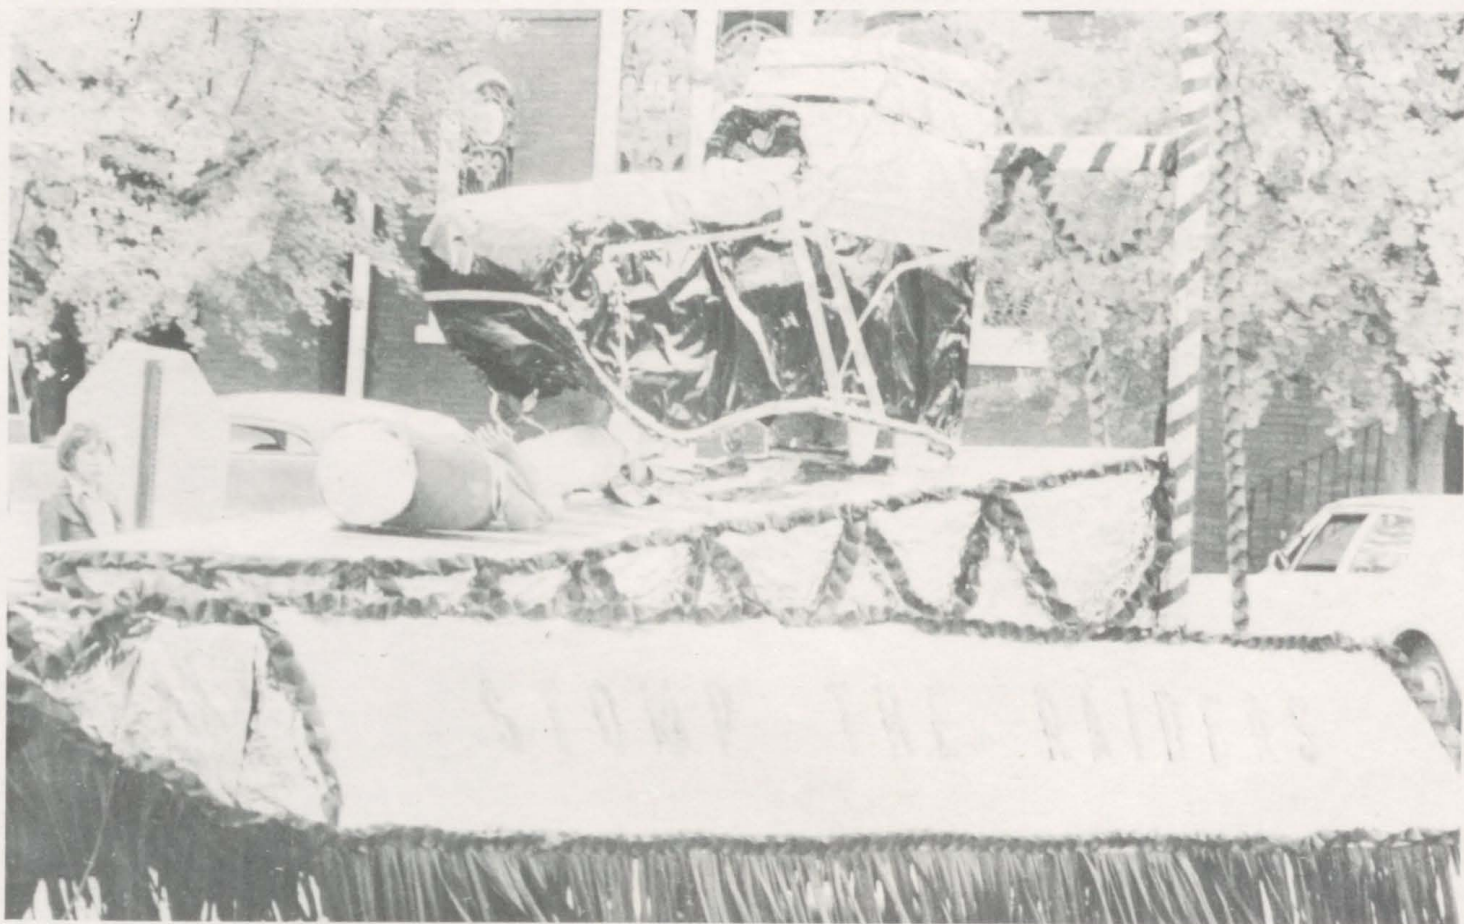

Sink, sank, already sunk

Only four more years of this

Sub-freshmen float shines

Miss Gillespie,

What can I say. For once I am having trouble saying what I feel. Words alone can never express exactly how I feel. I know alot of people say that but I REALLY mean it.

This year you have been more than a teacher, you have been a great friend. You have given me so much. One of my goals for my remaining high school years, is to repay you for all you have done.

I have enjoyed Typing I, and I look forward to Typing II, and other classes with you. I want you to know that whatever I do in life, you will have a great influence ~~on~~ my life.

You bring so much happiness to everyone you are near. I only hope that you will find much love and happiness in everything you do.

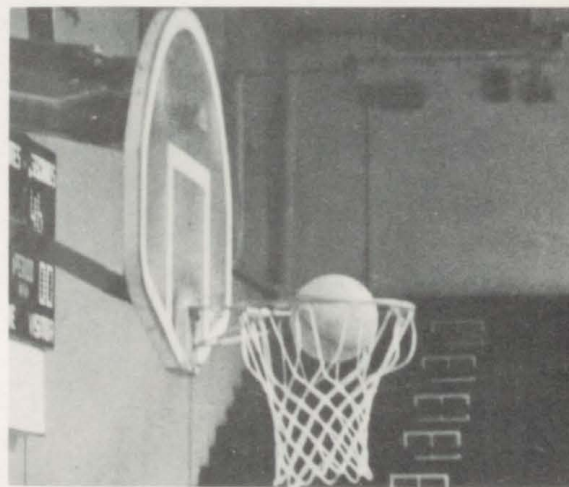

Call me this summer if you decide you need a tennis partner!!! Hla!!!

I love you very much. Thanks for everything.

Love,
Cynthia

Who Says Blondes Have More Fun" Award - Layne Graham
 "Best Friend" Award - Mygleetus Williams
 The "Sing It Simple" Award - Ellen Futral

SENIOR PROPHECY

It is the year 1987 and I have one of the worst toothaches ever. I am visiting my parents in Fort Valley and they tell me that David Bowden has his own dentist's office. I go to see him and his secretary, Debbie Dunbar, tells me it will be a long wait. I sit down and look at the newest magazines.

In the sports field I see that Valerie White has started a professional girls' basketball league. Some of the coaches of teams are Felice Dyson, Gail Riley, Delores Collins, and Gwen Davis. Merrill Ross, Mike Yancey, David Eaton, Buddy Sims, Harold Small, Millard Thomas, Ronald Ross, Henry Preston, Anthony Frazier, and Lonnie Scott are playing pro football. Some of the pro basketball players now are Charlie Lowe and Richard Smith. Norrie McKenzie and Art Crouch teamed together for a tight win in a World Team Tennis Doubles Match.

In the political spotlight is Mygleetus Williams. She has become the nation's first lady president. Also, there is an argument going on in Washington. Jeff Blair, the Speaker of the House, is trying to stop William Blossch, the Secretary of the Army, from starting World War III.

One of the movies to open in theaters around the nation is "King Kong Meets Walter Haussner."

The nurse, Tania Tucker, comes out and tells me that I might as well go to lunch and come back in an hour. I decide to eat at the Dairy Queen under the new management of Sheila Walker. Susan Giles is the head waitress and Roosevelt Northern and Murray Bawn are heads of the meat department.

After a Walker's Warm Burger, I decide to walk through town. Kaye Watson has opened up a Ladies' Boutique. Carole Anne Cato and Marcia Wilder have their own pharmacy. Kathy Champion and Sharon Gilchrist run another one right across the street. Kathi Harris and Tammy Gallmon own a jewelry store. Their motto is "Buy 2 diamonds and give one to me."

I see Sue Hill has started a bi-weekly newspaper. Her star reporters are some of those old Trojan Tracks staff members, the Jarrell twins, Jean and June, Beth Smith, and Nan Hill. These collaborate to write Terrible Tracks. Becky Sharpton and Qundal Williams are the typists.

In the advertising section of today's paper, I see Henry Ruhling has a used car lot. His slogan is "A free lollipop with every purchase." David Bentley and Edgar Bailey have a singing school. Bill Powell has his own TV service. Bill Bales has his own barber shop that specializes in baldness. Elizabeth Robinson has taken all of her experience with blackboards and now manufactures them. Bob McDonald is her salesman. He demonstrates how easily math problems work on the new surface. The Red and White has now merged with the Piggly Wiggly under the co-ownership of Major Jordon, Donald Smith, and Steve Taylor. Sheree Spillers now runs Valley Equipment. At the end of the paper, I see a reminder by the town librarian, Lisa Marshall, for everyone to return their over-due books.

Since I mentioned books, I see some people have become career students. Dwight Cornelious has made a profession out of talking in Mrs. Brown's study hall. Linda Williams and Shirley Battle are trying to get back in PCHS so that they can take shorthand from Mr. McGahee again. Others have taken school-related jobs. Shirley Canady has become national president of the FHA. Anita Dugger and Willie Ann Jackson have joined the secretarial staff at PCHS. Janie Felton has become the sponsor of the cheerleaders. Cynthia Perkins has become a teacher - she teaches Duncan Morgan how to walk. Kay Waldrip is a teacher, also. She teaches business math at Yale.

Some former students just have careers. Jack Kemp's career is Cindy Fricks. Don Hawkins' career is being "slick."

A couple of students have government jobs. Donna Hawkins is the county peach tree inspector. Sandra Wilder is the chief accountant for the State of Georgia.

My hour for lunch is now over. I go back to the dentist. After two more hours of waiting, I am furious. I burst into David's office and find him trying to pull his own teeth. The major problem is that he gave himself too much laughing gas.

Miss Gillespie,

Thanks for the good times always to be remembered. Always remember me as the crazy girl I am. I hope that one day you'll meet that someone who is good enough for you. He will be if you like him, I know. You have been more a friend than a teacher. I have always liked this course and really do now that I ~~have~~ have almost finished it. Have a good time with your other classes next year. I will enjoy taking accounting from someone that understands me.

Thanks for being so good,

😊 smile all isn't bad.

I, Kay Thurman, leave to Steve Keys all my geometry home work - which I never did. I, Jeff Blair, leave No. 15 to any two brothers who think they can handle it for six years. I, Delores Collins, will to Kirt Lenard Collins the ability to come to PCHS and get the best education from the best teachers and pick up my good talent for playing basketball. I, Sheila Walker, will to the underclassmen the ability to exempt the hardest courses like P.E. and study hall. I, Donald Lee Smith, leave to Don Mills all my jokes in the hope that he gets more laughs with them than I did. I, Vivian Brown, will to all the girls the ability to leave my man alone. I, Debbie Dunbar, will to Carol Gallmon the ability to be Mr. McGahee's "shadow" for the next two years, in the hope that she will "love" shorthand as much as I did. I, Terry Landreth, will to any underclassman who has the ability to look at Mr. Carter as much as I did, my tardy record for my senior year. I, Ronald Ross, will to Dwayne Bawn "Green Freshman" the ability to be a player like me. I, Kay Watson, leave my fingertips to anyone that can find them in the dumpster behind the Medical Center. I, Dwight Cornelious, will whatever I have to anyone who wants a used mind, body, and a great deal of soul. I, Barnard Sullivan, will to Peach County High absolutely NOTHING, which is still more than I desire to give but the least I can. I, Willie B. Lanier, leave my telephone number to all the ladies at PCHS who would like to have it. I, Sheila Willis, leave Debbie Smisson hope in finding someone to tell her problems to at 12:30 lunch - GOOD LUCK!!! I, Willie Ann Jackson, will to Miss Marie Terrell, my brain and friendship, and to be more patient, I will to Mrs. Bowden my right shoe and a successful life. I, Beverly Schofield, will to Sabrina Thorpe my seat in the upcoming senior year. I, Linda Oliver, being of sound mind will to Wylene Evans my brilliant brains and my hair rollers. I, Don Hawkins, will my ability to get away with slick things and make cool noises in class without getting caught all through the years. I, Cynthia Felder, will to Charlie Lowe all my "love" and the ability to remember me forever and ever. I, Jeanette Alston, will to Dot Adams the power to understand men, and to accept that men will be men no matter what. I, Mike Cameron, give the great school of PCHS to Jay Ballew. He may do what he wants to with it. I, Walter Haussner, leave weirdness to anyone dumb enough to take it up. I, Geraldine Hodges, will to Libby Hodges the ability to make it through high school without trouble from Ms. King!!! I, Artis Green, will to Kerry Collins the ability to pass a test with five minutes of study like me, The Great!!! I, Cynthia Perkins, being of sound mind and body, will to Duncan Morgan the ability to walk down the hall without touching anyone. I, Elizabeth Robinson, leave Keith ANOTHER water gun, Sallie some pepto Bismol, and Sandy a private telephone. I, Barbara Smith, will to Sibyl Miller a successful time in college, and to be a good mother to Michael. I, Beth Smith, do hereby leave to Group I what they most rightfully deserve - not a blame thing. I, Debra Whittington, will to anyone the ability to put up with this school long enough to graduate. I, Valerie Denise White, will to Theresa Durham, the shortest girl in the school, some of my height so she can at least be seen before stepped on. I, Kathy Champion, take with me a part of Charmayne Dent, my "bosom buddy." I, Nan Hill, leave my parking place to anyone who can squeeze into it. I, Cathy Aultman, leave PCHS Lori Aultman, if they can handle her.

I, Ellen Gassett (Elly Mae) leave the handling of the "Daddy's and Daughters" to Mary Wilson and Jan Carter. God knows the group requires the "volume." I, Becky Sharpton, leave to N.J. the wisdom that I learned when I was her age; the ability to keep the Lord's will in mind. I, Denise McCrary (Duffy), being of hopefully sound mind, will to LaVoris McCrary the ability to get to school without me 2 minutes before the bell rings. I, Harold Small, leave to my younger brother, Quintin, all of my meanness so he can be as good in basketball as I was in football. I, Larry Wilson, do hereby proclaim that I leave my ability to stand girls up on Saturday night to Jimmy Cummmings. I, Mygleetus Williams, will to all future PCHS students the ability to carry an armful of books around school before lockers are issued, without getting a broken arm. I, Anita Dugger, will to PCHS the ability to keep on keeping on with Miss Terrell. She's not really mean. I, Billy Joyner, leave the ability to cheat in class and not get caught to Gigner Watson. I, David Jones, will my ability to pass notes under Mrs. Anderson's watchful eye, to Liz Robinson and June Jarrell who always get caught. I, Merry Lee Miller, will James Phillips a sound mind and body and good character. I, William J. Bales, will my catcher's mitt to anyone who is fool enough to take it, and likewise my physics book. I, Sue Hill, leave my strawberry lip potion to Coach Fibbe in hopes that he will know that to do with it. I, Wanda Barnes, will to Keith McElmurray the hope and prayers to pass algebra, especially if he gets MRS. BARBER!!! I, Jack Kemp, Jr., will to anyone who thinks he can handle it, my ability to tell a teacher she's wrong, get sent to the office, and come out smelling like roses. I, Susan Giles, will Mike Giles the ability to get along with Mr. McGahee and to anyone else the ability to take shorthand two years and put up with Mr. McGahee's trying to be funny the whole time. I, Vivian Jackson, leave Sallie Jackson the common sense that I have, which we all know that she is lacking. I, Merrill Ross, will to the students of PCHS the ability to stay out of Mr. McClendon's office for 4 years in a row. I, Anthony Frazier, will to James Oates the ability to block without scoring a touchdown. I, Cynthia Cook, will to "Tank " Virginia Lowe my ability to stay in school a whole day without going to sleep. I, Willie S. Knolton, will to Chester Grimes the ability to come out of this school in the next two years. I, Richard Smith, will to Henry Williams my ability to wake up in the morning and come to school. I, Brenda Jones, will to Brenda Lowe the ability to know just how to treat David Walton. I, Brenda McGhee, will to Vickie Jones my cheating techniques to overcome Ms. King's semester exam. I, Linda Nottingham, will my ability to handle a rifle to Frances Mathis, so she can do at least one performance without dropping the rifle. I, Lisa Marshall, will to Arita Edwards the ability to hold her head up high when everything else is going all wrong. I, George Hamlin, will to all upcoming Seniors the ability to have a very nice personality and rise to the highest degree of success. I, Jan Hobbs, leave Coach Barnes a pencil for the shot charts. It is under Miss Gillespie's typewriter. I, Nikki Easler, leave my smile to Miss Bell in hopes that some day she'll learn what a smile is. I, Edgar Bailey, will to anyone the courage and stamina to take a course with Mrs. Lumpkin for 3 years in a row without going crazy. I, Norrie McKenzie, leave my tennis racquet to anyone who can watch the ball more than the girls. I, William Blosch, will to Brantley Sims the C.L. Country Club since he is the last of a long line of Key Club initiates. May he roast his marshmallows as nobly as Henry, Bill, Bob, Art, and myself. I, James Danielly, will Jackie Porter the ability not to go to sleep in Mr. Ray's class. I, Bob McDonald, do gratefully leave to the little people in my government class the ability to understand and even love the juvenile mind. I, Art Crouch, leave my worn-out Snoopy underwear to anyone who wants them. I, Bill Powell, will to Cynthia Alford all the love and happiness in the world. I, Scott Gaines, leave to any junior with the knowledge and nerves the power to skip school for eight weeks in a row without being caught. I, Larry Lindsey, will to Eva Dean success in any problems she may have in the future. I, Cornelious Rumph, will Limbert Rouse my shoe size because he's got some big feet. I, Janie Felton, will to all the upcoming seniors the ability to be as successful as I am. I, George Ages, will to Jjerome Rumph the ability to grow smaller feet. I, Paulette Brown, challenge the future students of PCHS to finish four years of high school without visiting Mr. McClendon's office. I, Millard Thomas, will to the football team of 77-78 my right forearm to bring them down with. I, Shirley Canady, will to anyone the ability to write a theme for Ms. King "exactly" like she wants it. I, Eva Dean, will to Brenda Lowe all my required units to graduate in 1978. I, Charmayne Dent (Moon), leave Brad my wisdom, Chann my athletic ability, Alan my get-up-and-go, and Brantley all the "scanderls" he can handle. We, June and Jean Jarrell, leave to any future twins the ability to totally confuse teachers and fellow students as we did. I, David Grace, leave my 442 to anyone who can afford to keep it running and stay between the ditches. I, Major Jordan, leave my ability to get along with everyone to all underclassmen. I, Donna Smallwood, leave Miss King the ability to teach high school and not college. I, Gwen Davis, will my spot on the basketball court to anyone who thinks he can play it as well as I did. I, Shirley Lloyd, being of sound mind and sound body, will to all the underclassmen the ability to get where I've been. I, Donna Hawkins, leave all my "Huh's" to Kathy Mathis in hopes she won't say "huh" when a question is asked of her. I, Darlene Worthy, with almost sound mind and body, will to all of you underclassmen the ability to turn back the hands of our time, I, Murray Bawn, will to all the future drum majors of PCHS the ability to direct and lead the band as well as I, for I was the greatest. I, Barbara Mathis, will my last will and testament to my parents for giving me the ability to make a good person out of myself and by making me what I am today. I, Tammie Gallmon, leave to all underclassmen the ability to go through Miss Bell's geometry class for a whole year and have to go to the board only once. I, Marcia Ann Wilder, leave the two inches that were cut off my cheerleading uniform to Angela Wicker in hopes that she can take a hint!!! I, Linda Williams, being of sound mind and body will to Elaine Canady the ability to hold on until the bathroom key fits. I, Shirley Battle, will to Agnes Brown the ability to survive the lunchroom food. I, Gail Riley, will to Gloria Lockett the ability to play basketball the whole game without fouling out in the first two minutes. I, Peggy Stephens, will to Billie Shepherd the ability to find someone special and be as happy with him as I am with Danny. I, Charlene Kemp, will Ms. King to anyone who wants "C's" in English. I, Laymond Hill, leave to Clinton Mitchell all my knowledge and skills so he can expand his brain. I, Margaret Ree Barnes, will to all of the underclassmen the ability to come to school under any circumstances - rain, sleet, ice, or snow. I, Jay Borum, will my ability to sound like a cricket to anyone who wants to drive his teachers crazy; and can learn how. I, Gloria Girdner, will to the class of '78 an ability to be as good and successful as we, the class of '77, were. I, Felice Maria Dyson, will to Anita Ponder a pair of my daddy's socks. I, Kathryn Pryor, will to Annette Barnes the 1978 title of Miss Powersville. I, Carole Anne Cato, will to Rusty Bozeman my ability to keep calm during a snow storm. I, Sharon Leigh Gilchrist, leave to Pam Holland, the next varsity cheerleader, the ability to cheer for PCHS one full year to a winning team! (maybe!!!) I, David Bowden, leave Brantley Sims, Rusty Bozeman, and Genie Bartlett the ability to endure Mr. McGahee "the mouth" and Miss Snodgrass "the monster" for just one more year of annual work. WE, THE CLASS OF '77, LEAVE THE CLASS OF '78 THE ABILITY TO DODGE THE POTHOLES AND GLASS IN THE DRIVE ON THE WAY TO THE STUDENT PARKING LOT!!!

Editor's Epilogue

Are you all impressed?

We on the Annual Staff did our best!

Hour after hour, night after night

This Book is now done, and the time is right

For me to thank staff and faculty alike.

As you look for your picture on page after page,

Think of the time, the fighting, and rage!!!

We fought for our pictures, our ads, and our copy

And now that we're finished, the staff room is sloppy!!

Mr. McGahee and Miss Snodgrass, Thanks must go to ya'll, too,

Before this Epilogue can possibly be through.

This Epilogue now comes to an end,

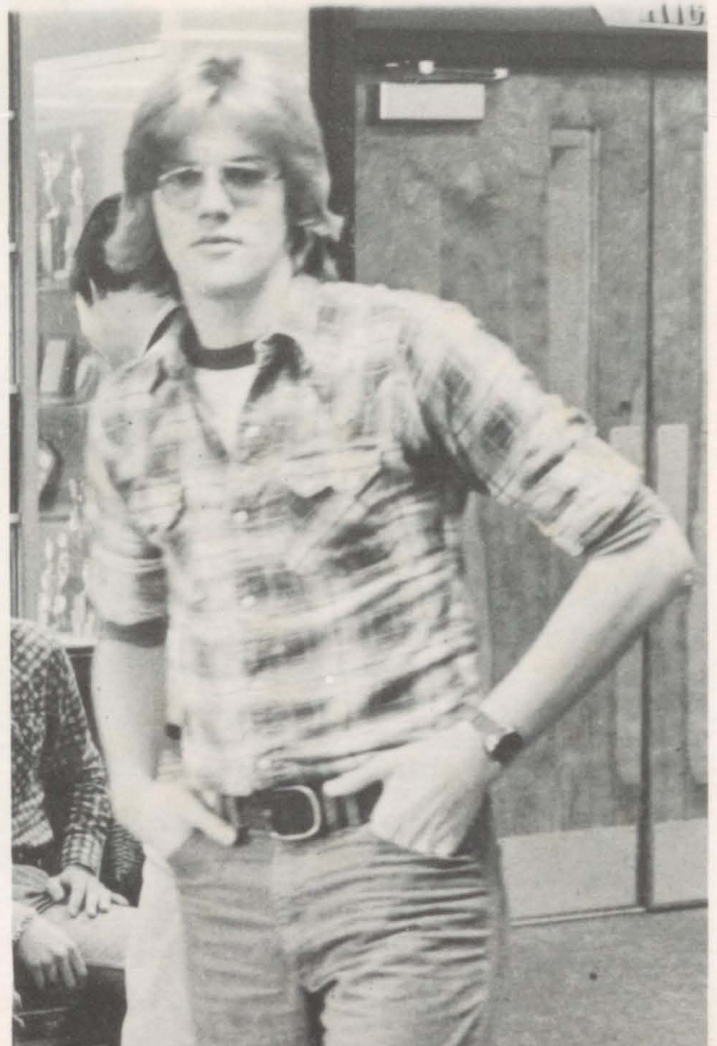

And all I can say is just thanks again!!!

possibilities
I have never enjoyed being so of your studies. You make everything interesting and not so boring. I will a fantastic teacher. You'll for being a teacher. Thanks

Love,
Shirley
